

30 Years With the Children of God

Ordered out of Iran by SAVAK and travelling overland with young children across Iran, Pakistan, Afghanistan and Turkey; tossed around by earthquakes; caught in a Peruvian flash flood; followed by the KGB; travelling the vast expanse of Russia during winter. Those are only a few of the experiences of one of the early members of the Children of God. A group that some have called one of the most dangerous cults of the century? Follow the story for a rare and candid insight into the group, as it changes from a small, rag tag band of hippies, to a world wide organization with thousands of members reaching millions with a traditional Christian message of salvation, as well as its own more controversial beliefs.
