

Reckless Abandon

A heart-wrenching breakup, an accident a loss. Every time Emma Paige stretches out her right hand she is reminded of all the dreams that faded in one awful weekend. But when Emma and her sister, Leah, embark on a trip to Capri, Italy, a near drowning leads them deserted in a foreign country. When a stranger offers to help, the sisters follow him to his luxury yacht where Emma faces her greatest challenge yet. His name is Asher. Over the course of three days, Emma and Asher enter into an intense, complex and emotion extracting relationship. But when Emma learns of Ashers real identity she finds herself betrayed and stranded by the only man she was ever able to open her heart to. A chance meeting in New York, a romance communicated through music and a choice greater than any love shes ever known, Emma learns of Ashers demons and is left to wonder Is he here to save her or is he the one who needs saving? ... .. An intense novel about rediscovering yourself while fighting the demons of your past. Trust is put to the test and desire is tempted like never before. Packed with dynamic characters, a powerful admission and lyrical writing, Reckless Abandon has the all the feels of a great romance equated in beats and measures. A Definite Must Read! This book starts you off with a bang, sucks you right in and keeps you held fast turning page after page after page. Right from the prologue we are totally shocked and needing to know what happens next. This read is so amazing, the author has created a wholly intense, emotional, heart palpating, passionate, and beautiful romance. Melissa, Books Can take Your There The emotion she wove into this story made my heart to ache, the passion the characters had for one another was off the charts, and how music continued to bring them back together was magnificent!
