A Selection of True Short Stories From the Hairdressing Salon - Secrets & Confessions From the Hairdressers Chair. This is the first part of this exciting series of a short stories collection adapted from a book of short stories from the hairdressing salon written by Sheila Shannon. Number of Word Pages: 27 Number of words: 13796 The stories are all real and true and actually happened over the past several years in Sheila Shannons hairdressing salon in the Pacific Northwest. Some are hilarious and some are sad, but they make terrific reading and are worth adding to your e-book collection. Each collection starts with an Intro by David Roberts, a Personal Bio (I Am) by Sheila Shannon and then on to her experiences while attending beauty school in Montana. Please note: If you purchase more than one of the series, you will get all three of the above in each collection. Short stories included in this collection include: The Letters: Sheila's experience with the personal ads. Will she or wont she? Sit in the Car: Women wait in the car while their husbands drink in the bar! To Poo or Not to Poo: Which is which? Some want to be shampooed, some dont! Whod a Thank It?: Sheilas advice to men on Valentines Day. The Ring: How Sheila gets the pearl ring. The Boyfriend: Client Phyllis has a boyfriend. Number of Word Pages: 27 Number of words: 13796 Dont forget to look out for the next book in the series. More titles can be found at David Roberts Marketing dot Com
