BUS STOP READS ARE QUICK SHORT READS True Crime Story of One of the Youngest Serial Killers Ever! In December 1968 Mary Bell, aged eleven, appeared before a criminal court in England, accused of murdering, Martin Brown, aged four, and Brian Howe, aged three. Mary was found guilty of manslaughter due to diminished responsibility and was sentenced to detention for life. What would induce a young child to murder two other young children? In this short book, Sylvia Perrini, looks at Marys tragic life, her years in prison and life since prison. This short book follows in the tradition of great true crime writers such as Ann Rule, M. William Phelps and R J Parker.
