

Disbelieving Man

An enchanting, mysterious new nanny might just be the miracle that a father and daughter need. Successful novelist and overextended single father Alan Magnus may have finally found the perfect nanny for his daughter, Deanna. Misty is a talented cook, who somehow manages never to dirty a dish, and her connection with Deanna is immediate. But Alan can sense that something is strange. Toys seem almost too lifelike around Misty, and her purple eyes are curiously disarming. Deanna is sure that Misty is a fairy, a fantasy Alan is quick to dismiss, but he can't deny that things have been much better since the charming woman entered their lives. Alan has always had his feet planted firmly on the ground, but will he be able to open his eyes to magic, and his heart to love?
