

Dust Tracks on a Road: An Autobiography (Harper Perennial Modern Classics)

Warm, witty, imaginative... This is a rich and winning book. The New Yorker Dust Tracks on a Road is the bold, poignant, and funny autobiography of novelist, folklorist, and anthropologist Zora Neale Hurston, one of American literatures most compelling and influential authors. Hurston's powerful novels of the South including Jonah's Gourd Vine and, most famously, Their Eyes Were Watching God continue to enthrall readers with their lyrical grace, sharp detail, and captivating emotionality. First published in 1942, Dust Tracks on a Road is Hurston's personal story, told in her own words. The Perennial Modern Classics Deluxe edition includes an all-new forward by Maya Angelou, an extended biography by Valerie Boyd, and a special P.S. section featuring the contemporary reviews that greeted the book's original publication.
