

Murder in Boston: A Woman Murdered. A City Torn Apart. A Crime That Grippped a Nation. And Thats Just the Beginning...

A woman murdered. A city torn apart. A crime that gripped a nation. And thats just the beginning of the story. Charles Stuart claimed it was a black man who carjacked him, shooting both himself and his wife, ending both her life and the life of their unborn child. The accusation and subsequent manhunt enflamed the racial tensions of Boston, leading to the arrest of an innocent man. It was then discovered that Stuart had killed his wife and shot himself to cover up the crime, seeking a big insurance payout. When his crimes were exposed, Stuart jumped off a bridge to his death. Ken Englade explored the story with panoramic vision and a stunning eye for detail. Looking at the crime itself and the police response, Englade shows how Stuarts crime unraveled, how the truth came out, and what the medias response can tell us about the biases through which we view the worst of crimes.
