

Friends of the Family

One of the most spectacular cases of police corruption in the city. New York Times Friends of the Family is a look deep inside the most notorious case to rock the NYPD: The story of Louis Eppolito and Stephen Caracappa, the two police detectives who moonlighted as mob hit men. As told by Tommy Dades and Michael Vecchione the cop and District Attorney investigator who solved New York's coldest case along with co-writer David Fisher, Friends of the Family is shocking true crime in the tradition of Nicolas Pileggis Wiseguys and Underboss by Peter Massa chilling, in-depth examination of what the New York Daily News calls the worst betrayal of the badge in the NYPD's history.
