The year is 1884. Ama Stocking was ripped from her own mothers arms when she was just a baby. Born into an Indian tribe in Oklahoma, Ama has been raised by a rich family in New York whove: Never really accepted her as one of their own. Refused to give her the family last name. Refused to see her married off like one of their real daughters. Ama is desperate to return to her true home. Desperate for a family of her own. But Ama has been waiting for a long time... Many years ago she signed up to become a mail order bride. But no one has selected her. She has just about given up all hope, everything changes on day when she receives a letter. Elbert Timms lives in Mt Boulder, Oklahoma, where Ama was stolen from. It seems like fate has led her back there. But what will happen when Ama arrives in Mt Boulder and it is nothing like she remembered? There are many prejudiced people in Mt Boulder, and little does Ama know, that things are about to get tough. When she finds herself unwanted and an outcast, will she leave again? Because when Elbert finds a baby on his doorstep, everything changes. But will raising a surprise baby together make things easier for Ama and Elbert? Or harder?  FREE DOWNLOAD  YOU CAN GET A CLEAN WESTERN SHORT STORY ROMANCE, FOR FREE - click here to find out more > bit.ly/fayesonjabooks (just copy and paste into your browser) This is a sweet and CLEAN WESTERN ROMANCE short story.
