

Memoirs of the Life Writings, and Discoveries of Sir Isaac Newton, Vol. 1 (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from Memoirs of the Life Writings, and Discoveries of Sir Isaac Newton, Vol. 1 In consequence of the wide circulation of the Life of Sir Isaac Newton, which I drew up for the Family Library in 1831, I was induced to undertake a larger work, in order to give a more detailed account of his Life, Writings, and Discoveries. For this purpose I applied in 1837 to the Honourable Newton Fellowes, one of the trustees of the Earl of Portsmouth, for permission to inspect the Manuscripts and Correspondence of Sir Isaac, which, through his grandniece, Miss Conduitt, afterwards Lady Lymington, had come into the possession of that noble family. Mr. Fellowes kindly granted my request, and his amiable and accomplished son, Mr. Henry Arthur Fellowes, who, had he lived, would now have been Earl of Portsmouth, met me in June 1837, at Hurtsbourne Park, to assist me in examining and making extracts from the large mass of papers which Sir Isaac had left behind him. In this examination our attention was particularly directed to such letters and papers as were calculated to throw light upon his early and academical life, and, with the assistance of Mr. Fellowes, who copied for me several important documents, I was enabled to collect many valuable materials unknown to preceding biographers.
