

Penny: The Story of a Free-Soul Basset Hound

Some dogs, like some people, just cant abide a quiet life, writes Hal Borland, author of The Dog Who Came to Stay, in this warm and touching memoir. Penny the basset shows up at the Borlands Connecticut farmhouse on a cold, snowy dayhead held high, tail wagging, as if she were a long-awaited guest. Hal and Barbara Borland were no strangers to strays. Pat, the rabbit hound thousands of readers came to know in The Dog Who Came to Stay, had also appeared one winter, staying to become the familys dear companion. Now, Pat is gone, and Hal and Barbara are bereft without canine company. They fall in love with Pennyand she seems to fit right in. Penny is a delightful dogshort-legged, flop-eared, full of fun and curiosity. And she loves people, so much so that she leaves the Borlands to go visiting elsewhere, often settling in with a different family for days on end. Indeed, Hal and Barbara admire her for her spirit of individuality and independence. Though she never truly belonged to them, the Borlands agreed that Penny was a dog well worth lovingand so will readers.
