

The Micro-Script Rules: Its not what people hear. Its what they repeat...

Know how to make 5 words beat 5,000? Or tell your whole story in a sentence of less?

For communicators now, its critical. And the secrets in The Micro-Script Rules: Its not what people hear. Its what they repeat Call it survival of the simplest: Thats the bottom line if youre in branding, politics, teaching, a business owner or advertiser anyone who communicates in this hyper-connected world. Because with 300 billion messages going by each second, we cant break through by delivering more data. Human brains want less. They want to make snap judgments on the least bit of info. They want us to package it for them--in Micro-Scripts. Thats why: ? A new product seizes 50% of the market in two years using 7 perfect words. ? A lawyer won the murder trial of the century with 8 simple words. ? Ernest Hemingway thought his greatest story ever was 6 words long. ? The fate of millions was changed by a war, based on a 2 word policy. ? A presidential election turned on a 4 word phrase. Imagine the power of magic words like these on your brand, your website, your business plan, your career. Theyre not just sound bites. Theyre story bites. Written the way we love to remember and repeat. Used by great communicators for 1,000 years. Now theyre yours in a smart and entertaining book: The Micro-Script Rules. The Micro-Script Rules is dead on its how to verbalize a point of difference. --JACK TROUT, co-author of the legendary Positioning: The Battle for Your Mind The missing ingredient in most marketing is memorability Micro-Scripts solve that problem. -- AL RIES, co-author of the legendary Positioning: The Battle for Your Mind As Bill Schley shows, Micro-Scripts are big marketing. Now, anyone can dominate a market with a few well-placed words. Especially you. So what are you waiting for? -- DAVID MEERMAN SCOTT, bestselling author,
